HATHERLEIGH CARNIVAL

As I am sure you are aware, Hatherleigh Carnival is on 12th November and the school would like as many children as possible to take part in the afternoon procession. We thought an apt theme would be 100 years of Roald Dahl with the children being characters from his books. Just so we know who to expect on carnival day, please can you write their name on the list on the office window. There is no need to write the character as it doesn't matter if there is more than one particular character. There is absolutely no obligation to use crepe paper but it would be fantastic if some people do. Also, if anyone is willing to make a sign saying 100 years of Roald Dahl (crepe paper or not), please speak to Mrs King.

The children will need to assemble in Claremont at 1.45pm (unless wet when they will need to go straight to the market) where they will process to the market for judging. Their group will be one of the first to be judged and the children will be free to go as soon as the judging is over.
