WILLOW WORK

Thank you to all those who helped with the willow work before half term. We need one more session to finish it off. If anyone is available next Wednesday 13th after school to come and help, Jo Pullin would welcome you!

CHESTNUTS PIRATE DAY

On Wednesday 18th July Chestnuts are having a pirate day. Please can your child come to school dressed as a pirate. At 2:45pm the Chestnuts will be performing a pirate dance that they will be learning with Jess Squire. Parents are invited to come and watch the performance which will be held in the Music Hall 2:30pm-3:15pm.

OKEHAMPTON COLLEGE TRANSITION DAY

Unfortunately, there has been a change to the date of the transition day for the Year 6 children. Please check your child's book bag for a letter coming home with them today.

FREE DANCE WORKSHOP for parents and their children

Funded by Learn Devon, our school has been offered a free dance workshop for parents/carers and their children. Suitable for all ages and abilities, with no previous dance experience necessary, the aim of the workshop is to spend time having fun together and trying a new skill. The workshop leader will be Jessica Squire, a freelance dance teacher who has taught in over 20 primary schools in Devon. The workshop will involve fun exercises and learning and sharing dance moves together. Perfect for mums, dads, carers, boys and girls.

Book your place with the school office now.
